Dear Mr. Craven,

This is the Initial Agency Decision (IAD) from Office of the Secretary, U.S. Dept. of Veterans Affairs (OSVA) to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated and received June 2, 2019, and assigned FOIA tracking number 19-08190-F. You requested, in your words:

Requesting all email communication between Deborah Lafer Scher, Executive Advisor to the Secretary, Center for Strategic Partnerships, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs between April 21, 2019 and present day concerning the VA Health 2019 conference (<https://www.idga.org/events-veteransaffairshealthcare>) hosted by the Institute for Defense and Government Advancement (IDGA). Emails include all emails with IDGA employees (emails ending in IDGA.org) as well as attendees and other entities discussing the conference. Key words: "partnership," "mission act," "payment," "MOU," "MOA," "agreement," "conference," "choice."

IAD & Reasonable Searches Dated 8/13/19 & 9/3/19

On August 13, 2019, our search cut-off date, OSVA requested that the VA IT office gather and search for the responsive records within the email boxes of Deborah Scher. On or about August 20, 2019, the VA IT office provided all responsive records, with the OSVA FOIA Officer to conduct a secondary search. On September 3, 2019, the OSVA FOIA Officer conducted secondary search. The OSVA FOIA Officer used the following search terms: 1) @idga.com, 2) conference and (partnership or mission or payment or MOU or MOA or agreement or choice), 3) ("VA Health") and conference, and 4) IDGA and conference. This September 3, 2019, search yielded fifty-seven (57) pages.

After reviewing the fifty-seven (57) pages, OSVA redacts some information with FOIA Exemption 6. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) exempts from required disclosure "personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy." FOIA Exemption 6 permits VA to withhold a document or information within a document if disclosure of the information, either by itself or in conjunction with other information available to either the public or the FOIA requester, would result in an unwarranted invasion of an individual's personal privacy without contributing significantly to the public's understanding of the activities of the federal government. Specifically, the information being withheld, as indicated on the enclosed documents, under FOIA Exemption 6, consists of names, identities, email addresses, phone numbers, cellular numbers, facsimile numbers, and personal pictures of: federal employees, contractor employees, and private citizens. However, we release the names and VA contact information of VA Senior Executives, as well as the names of public figures or state VA Secretaries or Executive Directors. Federal employees, contractor employees, and private citizens retain a significant privacy interest under certain circumstances, such as in instances where the release of their information could represent a threat to their well-being, harassment, or their ability to function within their sphere of employment. The federal employees, contractor employees, and private citizens whose information is at issue have a substantial privacy interest in their personal information. In weighing the private versus the public interest, we find that there is no public interest in knowing the names, identities, email addresses, phone numbers, cellular numbers, facsimile numbers, and personal pictures of: federal employees, contractor employees, and private citizens. The coverage of FOIA Exemption 6 is absolute unless the FOIA requester can demonstrate a countervailing public interest in the requested information by demonstrating that the FOIA requester is in a position to provide the requested information to members of the general public and that the information requested contributes significantly to the public's understanding of the activities of the Federal government. Additionally, the requester must demonstrate how the public's need to understand the information significantly outweighs the privacy interest of the person to whom the information pertains. Upon consideration of the records, I have not been able to identify a countervailing public interest of sufficient magnitude to outweigh the privacy interest of the individuals whose names are redacted. The protected information has been redacted and (b)(6) inserted. "Withholding a telephone number or e-mail address, alone, is not sufficient to protect that [privacy] interest; alternate means of contacting and harassing these employees would be readily discoverable on the Internet if this court ordered their names disclosed." Long v. Immigration & Customs Enf't, 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160719 (D.C. Cir. 2017).

FOIA Mediation

As part of the 2007 FOIA amendments, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. Under the provisions of the FOIA Improvement Act of 2016, the following contact information is provided to assist FOIA requesters in resolving disputes:

VA Central Office FOIA Public Liaison:

Name: John Buck
